SCAM ALERT

Africa Online & Publications Library wishes to draw the attention of the public that fraudsters are using its name mischievously. Nobody has the power and authority to take decisions on behalf of Africa Online & Publications Library without the approval of the company. We are aware that certain malicious individuals are using our name for criminal purposes. We have obtained evidence of fraudulent messages generated by fraudsters which have been forwarded to institutions and individuals purportedly claiming to represent our company.

For the avoidance of any doubt, and apart from our Manager Chengkuac Awan, our company wishes to inform the public that we have not appointed any other individual to act on our behalf in any capacity in China or across any frontier in the globe where our offices are not located. We are legally registered in Rwanda and our employees are principally based in U.S.A, Germany, Poland, Rwanda, Cameroon, Zimbabwe and Turkey.

In view of the above, we strongly advise our users and partners to beware of these fraudulent individuals. The general public is therefore advised to discountenance these fraudsters who are trying to use Africa Online & Publications to make financial gains.

Consistent with our archiving, publications, research consultancy and providing educational service mission, we wish to sensitise the public about the antics of cyber fraudsters who want to take advantage of our name and steal from unsuspecting members of the public.

Africa Online & Publications Library, therefore, uses this opportunity to reiterate its commitment towards deepening publishing services and its dedication towards serving researchers across Africa and beyond.

Please, should you receive or have received such messages, kindly ignore them as they do not originate from Africa Online & Publications Library. However, if you have responded to such messages or is working with such individuals claiming to be our employees, please contact us immediately by WhatsApp: +4915214020579.
